FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
WESTERN DIVISION

NO. 5:21-CR-00448-1FL

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	:
v.	:	PRELIMINARY
	:	ORDER OF FORFEITURE
LAURENTINO BAZA-MARTINEZ	:

WHEREAS, the above-named defendant has pleaded guilty pursuant to a written plea agreement to Counts One and Two of the Indictment, charging the defendant with offenses in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) and 846;

AND WHEREAS, the government has filed a motion for entry of a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, showing unto the Court: that the defendant personally obtained at least $10,500.00 in proceeds from the offense, and that he/she made the proceeds unavailable as a result of his/her acts or omissions and one or more of the conditions to forfeit substitute assets exists, as set forth in 21 U.S.C. § 853(p); and that the defendant individually, or in combination with one or more co-defendants, has or had an ownership, beneficial, possessory, or other legal interest in and/or exercised dominion and control over each item of property that is subject to forfeiture herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, based upon the defendant's guilty plea, the stipulations contained in the Memorandum of Plea Agreement, the points and authorities in the government's motion, and all of the evidence of record in this case, the Court FINDS as fact and CONCLUDES as a matter of law that there is a nexus between each item of property listed below and the offense(s) to which the defendant has pleaded guilty, and that the defendant (or any combination of defendants in this case) has or had an interest in the property to be forfeited,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

1. The following property is forfeited to the United States pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(2) and 21 U.S.C. § 853(a):

Forfeiture Money Judgment:

a) A sum of money in the amount of $10,500.00, representing the gross proceeds personally obtained by the defendant as a result of the controlled substances offense(s) for which he/she has been convicted; and an amount for which the defendant shall be solely liable and in satisfaction of which the United States may forfeit substitute assets pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(p).

2. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3) and 32.2(c)(1)(B), the United States is authorized to conduct any discovery pursuant to the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure needed to identify, locate, or dispose of the above-referenced property, or other substitute assets, including depositions, interrogatories, requests for production of documents and for admission, and the issuance of subpoenas.

3. To the extent this Order constitutes a personal forfeiture money judgment against the defendant, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(6)(A), the United States is not required to send or publish notice of the same, as there is no specific property to be forfeited. However, this Order may be recorded in the records of the Clerk of Court in any county in which the defendant resides or has either real or personal property as a lien thereon. Pursuant to Rule 32.2(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the United States may move to amend this Order at any time to forfeit other property in which the defendant has an interest, whether directly forfeitable or substitute assets, to satisfy this forfeiture money judgment in whole or in part; provided that the net proceeds of any forfeited assets shall be credited toward satisfaction of the judgment upon liquidation.

4. Any person other than the above-named defendant, having or claiming any legal interest in the subject property must, within 30 days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier, petition the Court to adjudicate the validity of the asserted interest pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1) and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2). The petition must be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth: the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the subject property; the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property; any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim; and the relief sought. The petition may be hand-delivered to the Clerk at any federal courthouse within the Eastern District of North Carolina or mailed to the following address:

5. The United States shall serve this Order on all counsel of record for any co-defendant in this criminal matter. Such service shall constitute notice of the forfeiture to each co-defendant who has appeared in this case within the purview of Supplemental Rule G(4)(b)(iii)(B). Any co-defendant who desires to preserve his/her right to contest the forfeiture of any of the property identified herein must, no later than 30 days after entry of this Order, file a valid petition pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n) and/or other appropriate objection as to why the forfeiture should not become final. If no such filing is docketed within the allotted time, each non-objecting co-defendant shall be deemed to have waived any right to contest the forfeiture, this Order shall become a Final Order of Forfeiture as to the property without a separate Preliminary Order of Forfeiture being entered as to that co-defendant or incorporated into that co-defendant's criminal judgment, and the rights of that co-defendant in the subject property, if any, shall be extinguished.

6. If one or more timely petitions are received by the Court, the Court will enter a separate scheduling order governing the conduct of any forfeiture ancillary proceedings under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c). Following the Court's disposition of all timely filed petitions, a Final Order of Forfeiture that amends this Order as necessary to account for any third-party rights shall be entered pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2) and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(6). The receipt of a petition as to one or more specific items of property shall not delay this Order of Forfeiture from becoming final, in accordance with the following paragraph, as to any remaining property to which no petition has been filed.

7. If no third party files a timely petition, or if this Court denies and/or dismisses all third party petitions timely filed, this Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2), and the United States shall dispose of the property according to law, including without limitation liquidation by sale or any other commercially feasible means, destruction, and/or retention or transfer of an asset for official use. The United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(7).

8. Upon sentencing and issuance of the Judgment and Commitment Order, the Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to incorporate a reference to this Order of Forfeiture in the applicable section of the Judgment, as required by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4)(B). In accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4)(A), with the defendant's consent, this Order shall be final as to the defendant at sentencing.

9. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

SO ORDERED, this the 8th day of July, 2025.
